How to Help Others

- Infants, seniors, and people with paralysis or neuropathy are at increased risk of hypothermia and frostbite. Check on friends, relatives, and neighbors who may need assistance to ensure they are adequately protected from the cold.
- If you identify someone on the street you believe needs assistance, call 311 and ask for the Department of Homeless Services’ Mobile Outreach Response Team.

ARE YOU GRIEVING?

If you're one of the many people who have had to deal with the death of someone they cared about over the past year, and you'd like to talk with others in the same situation, our Bereavement Ministry is here for you.

If you have experienced a loss and would like to get in touch with our Bereavement Ministry, please call Jackie Daly at 917-837-7554 and leave a message.
